

Please print this sheet, Count all the unique whales you see during each time period,
Scan or take a clear picture, and email to research@pacificwhale.org. Mahalo!

Location:		Island:
Latitude:		Longitude:
Volunteer Name:		Date:
Volunteers:		Rain (Y/N):
Email:		General Weather:

Please DO NOT go to one of the 12 Great Whale Count sites. Instead, choose an alternative location where you can count whales from shore. Let us know where these sightings were recorded from by recording the place name, latitude and longitude of your count site.

Number of Whales Counted:

Time Period	Total # of Pods	Total # of UNIQUE Whales	Total # of UNIQUE Calves
8:30 - 8:45
9:00 - 9:15
9:30 - 9:45
10:00 - 10:15
10:30 - 10:45
11:00 - 11:15
11:30 - 11:45
TOTAL

GWC Dates & Times:

JAN 30 8:30 - 11:45

FEB 27 8:30 - 11:45

MAR 27 8:30 - 11:45

What is a pod?

One whale, or a group of whales together, is recorded as a pod.

Any other species sighted or interesting observations: